

Department of Information
& Communication Engineering
(Credit Hour System)

Department of Information & Communication Engineering

- The program began on September 2006 as an agreement between Helwan engineering faculty and International Telematic university (Uninettuno).

Department of Information & Communication Engineering

- Studying period is five years consisting of 180 credit hours.
- At the end of the program course, the student gets a Bachelor degree (two certificates) in Engineering from:
 - Faculty of Engineering, Helwan University – Egypt.
 - Telematic Uninettuno University – Italy.

In addition, the Italian certificate is certified by the European Union.

Department of Information & Communication Engineering

- The students registered in the program till now are 180 students.
- The Italian university supervise the program courses and the exams using video conference.
- Students can go for a training course in cooperation with the Italian partner, this training course duration is 4 weeks.

Training at Italy

- The program offers a training in Italy.
- Till now, Five groups did their training course in Italy:
 - The first group went for a month starting from 13/9/2010 to 14/10/2010.

Training at Italy

During the training course the Italian partner has done the following actions:

- The Italian university organized a reception for the students attended by the Egyptian Cultural Counselor, the chef of the Italian University and a group of professors and university staff.

Training at Italy

- The Italian university gave the students an approved certificate at the end of the training course.
- The Italian university organized a ceremony at the end of the training course attended by the chef of the Italian University, the Egyptian Ambassador, the Egyptian Cultural Counselor, the Members of the diplomatic mission, and the Italian TV.

13th October 2010
The Ambassador of Egypt in Italy, Ashraf Rashed, meets the Egyptian Students enrolled
the International Telematic University UNINETTUNO at Helwan University, Cairo.

UTIU
UNIVERSITÀ TELEMATICA
INTERNAZIONALE UNINETTUNO